Why the Biblical Model of Family Is Important Part 1 & 2 (Confronting the Giants)
Genesis 1:24-31

PART 1

"Destroy the family, you destroy the country." Vladimir Lenin, 1st leader Soviet Union

Supreme Court making laws and not interpreting laws affecting families.

- 1948 Banned religious education
- 1962 Banned prayer
- 1963 Banned the Bible
- 1973 Legalized abortion
- 2015 Homosexuality normalized

The Department of Education (1867)

Jimmy Carter created the cabinet position in 1979.

1. Introduced sex ed. based upon Masters and Johnson. Later the Kinsey model was adopted which normalized homosexuality and transgendered people.
2. Promotes the concepts of outcome based education and common core curriculum that weakens the student educationally. These educational models also tract the parents.
3. Set standard to require that children be in public education earlier and earlier.

The rise of the Welfare state which increases unreasonable financial burden upon the family by higher taxes.

The movement known as Feminism had a negative impact on the family.

PART 2

The rise of divorce rate works against family.

The divorce rate in our country is roughly 50%. One in every two marriages ends in divorce. Divorce rates increase with each successive marriage.

Liberal media projects wrong messages about family.

Projects images of what is desired/not desired
Projects messages of what is correct/incorrect, good/bad, right/wrong
Is more prevalent in many people's lives than, well, people

Religion without Biblical foundation contributes to the downfall of the family.

Contributes significantly to defining what is morally acceptable

What are we to do?

1. Remain faithful to the Biblical design for family.
2. Radically oppose those that would attempt to redesign family.
3. Be Role models of the Lord's plan for family.
